

Exchange Regulation

COMMUNIQUÉ NO. 6/2015
OF 23 JUNE 2015

New SIX Exchange Regulation website from 30 June 2015

The SIX Exchange Regulation website is being restructured as of 30 June. The new-look site will also be much more user-friendly thanks to its additional search and filter functions. The content remains essentially the same, however. No significant elements have been changed or removed. Further information will follow on 30 June 2015. Here is an overview of the changes in three relevant areas:

1. Rules, regulations and publications

Rules, regulations and publications are now accessible from one central location, and can be selected and found more easily using a new filter function. All documents remain available via the new-look site.

2. Admission of Securities Manual

The Admission of Securities Manual will no longer be available in printed form. Subscribers will be notified separately of the new arrangements.

3. Bookmarks on the website/RSS feeds

Current bookmarks on the website and for the RSS feeds will no longer be active, and will have to be replaced.
