

Exchange Regulation

COMMUNIQUÉ NO. 8/2015
OF 30 JUNE 2015

Important information for subscribers to updates to the Admission of Securities Manual for issuers

Dear Subscribers

Today you received the Communiqué on the launch of the new SIX Exchange Regulation website (<http://www.six-exchange-regulation.com/en/home.html>). We hope that the re-structured site will enable you to find the relevant information you need more quickly.

The great increase in regulatory requirements necessitate continual amendments to our rules and regulations. We therefore ask our subscribers always to check online that the version they have is up to date. Furthermore, demand for our Manual has been declining steadily, as more and more people come to rely on the online version. We have therefore decided to cease printing and updating the Manual with immediate effect.

All rules and regulations can be found using the new Finder facility (<http://www.six-exchange-regulation.com/en/home/regulation/explorer.html>). As a current subscriber, you will continue to receive regular Regulatory Board and SIX Exchange Regulation communiqués by e-mail, keeping you up to date with changes to these rules and regulations, as well as other relevant events, regularly by e-mail. Anyone else who is interested is also welcome to register for these notifications via Online Services (<http://www.six-exchange-regulation.com/en/shared/online-services.html>). Thank you.
